Windsor, Septemb. 3.

THe following Addreſs from the Grand Jury of the County of Weſtmorland, was this day preſented to Her Majeſty by the Right Honourable Mr. Secretary Harley.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Grand Jury for the County of Weſtmorland, at the Aſſizes and General Goal Delivery, held for the ſaid County at Appleby, the 23d day of Auguſt, Ann. Dom. 1704.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, tho' placed at a remote diſtance from Your Throne, humbly beg leave to approach Your Sacred Preſence with a Duty and Zeal as warm and affectionate as the very beſt of Your Loyal Engliſh Subjects can pretend to. None can more heartily Congratulate the Glorious Succeſs of Your Majeſty's Arms than we; None can be more tranſported with Joy for Your Signal Victories both by Land and Sea; None can be more Senſible of the Inexpreſſible Bleſſing this whole Nation enjoys under Your Auſpicious Reign; None can be more Thankful to God for ſuch a Mercy; and none can Importune Heaven more fervently for the long Continuance of it.

We take a great Satisfaction and Pleaſure to think, that the Great Advantages lately obtained over the common Enemy, are owing mainly to the Courage and Conduct of Your Majeſty's Generals and Admirals, and the Gallantry of Your Engliſh Forces, which (we doubt not) will render Your Arms Formidable to all Your Enemies, and Your Auguſt Name and Memory Sacred to all Poſterity. As we reckon our ſelves ſufficiently Secured of our Religion and Liberties, and every thing that is Dear to us, ſo long as Your Majeſty's Wiſdom and Piety next under God, Steers the Helm, and Governs this happy Iſland; ſo Your Majeſty may with the ſame Aſſurance, depend upon our Loyalty and Fidelity, and freely Command both our Lives and Fortunes, whenever Your Majeſty's Service ſhall require it.

It is not in our Power, Madam, to expreſs what Bleſſings and Felicities we wiſh to your Royal Perſon; nor can the Politeſt and moſt Rhetorical Addreſs ſufficiently declare with what Zeal and Unanimity we have all of us reſolved to Live and Die in Defence of Your Crown and Dignity and the Proteſtant Succeſſion, as by Law Eſtabliſh'd, and upon all Occaſions to approve our ſelves, Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful, moſt Loyal, and moſt Obedient Subjects.

The following Addreſs from the County of Somerſet was alſo preſented to Her Majeſty.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, and Grand Jury, and others of the County of Somerſet, held at the City of Wells, on the 22d day of Auguſt, in the Third Year of Her Majeſty's Reign.

WE heartily Congratulate the good Succeſs of Your Majeſty's Allies and Armies under the Command of his Grace the Duke of Marlborough; and we cannot at the ſame time be forgetful, but to return our humble Thanks for Your Majeſty's Care of the Church, eſpecially Your Majeſty's unparallelled Bounty to the Members thereof. And we heartily Wiſh and Pray for the good Succeſs of Your Majeſty's Forces by Land and Sea: So we aſſure Your Majeſty, That we ſhall always be ready and zealous to aſſiſt Your Majeſty in all Your Royal Undertakings, and ever be, as we duly acknowledge our ſelves, Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful Subjects.

The following Addreſs from the City of Oxford was preſented to Her Majeſty by Francis Norreys and Thomas Rowney Eſq; their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Abingdon, High Steward of the ſaid City.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Bayliffs, and Commonalty of the City of Oxon.

WHilſt all Europe Sounds of the late Glorious Succeſs of Your Majeſty's Arms, under the Conduct of his Grace the Duke of Marlborough, in the Entire Defeat of the Join'd Forces of France and Bavaria;

We Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects can't ſit ſtill in Silence, but humbly beg Leave to Congratulate the Succeſs of that Memorable Day, which has given the World a freſh Inſtance of Engliſh Valour under Engliſh Conduct, and fully Reſtor'd the Ancient Glory of the Engliſh Arms.

We are ſenſible this Triumph is owing to the Bleſſing of Almighty God on Your Majeſty's Great Piety and Care of the Church of England as by Law Eſtabliſh'd; and Your Majeſty's Great Wiſdom, which in the Choice of Your General, and Management of the Publick Affairs, ſhines through all Nations: It fills the Hearts of all Your Good Subjects and Allies with pregnant Hopes of a Happy Event of this War, and Obliges a Chearful Aſſiſtance in it; whilſt You, Madam, Bleſs Your People with Your Royal Preſence and Protection at Home; and at the ſame time ſtrike deeper Terrours into Your Enemies abroad.

This gives us a new Occaſion to Thank God for Your Majeſty, and to Pray for Your Long and Happy Reign over us; That no Factious Diſpute may ever diſturb Your Peace at Home, and that your Victorious Arms may proceed abroad with the like Succeſs, until you have Reſtor'd the Peace of Europe.

The following Addreſs was preſented to Her Majeſty by John Brougham Eſq; Secretary to the Exciſe, Introduced by the moſt Honourable the Lord High Treaſurer.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Deputy Lieutenants, High Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, and Grand Jury for the County of Cumberland, at the Aſſizes held at Carliſle the 19th day of Auguſt, in the Third Year of Your Majeſty's moſt Auſpicious Reign.

WE Your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects humbly crave leave to Congratulate the happy Succeſs of Your Majeſty's Arms both by Land and Sea, under the Conduct of his Grace the Duke of Marlborough and Sir George Rooke, the Joyful News whereof comes to us whilſt we are here call'd together in the Service of Your Majeſty and our Country.

The common Share that we have in this Bleſſing with the reſt of Your Majeſty's good Subjects is great: But allow us, Madam, to think our ſelves more ſpecially obliged to return our Thanks to God, and Your Majeſty's wiſe Councils, for our being delivered from thoſe Apprehenſions we were under of being the firſt Sufferers from the Conſpiracies of Your Majeſty's and the Kingdoms Enemies in theſe Northern Parts of Your Dominions, whoſe Treaſonable Practices threatned us in a more Eminent manner than the reſt of Your Engliſh Subjects.

May God long continue his Gracious Providence in the Preſervation of Your Majeſty's Royal Perſon, and make You the Head and Support of the whole Proteſtant Intereſt, as You already are of Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful Subjects.

All which Addreſſes Her Majeſty received very Graciouſly.

Vienna, Aug. 27. N. S. On the 24th inſtant Te Deum was Sung here, with a triple Diſcharge of our Cannon, for the Signal Victory obtained over the French and Bavarians at Blenem the 13th inſtant. A Courier from Rome paſſed lately through this City in his way to Poland, with a Brief to the Nuncio there, whereby the Pope Authorizes him to allow King Auguſtus the Tenths of all Eccleſiaſtical Revenues for the ſpace of two years. The Cardinal Primate is cited to make his Appearance at Rome within the Term of Three Months; and both he and all the other Biſhops in Poland are warn'd not to Crown Staniſlaus for King, under the Penalty of being depriv'd of their Benefices, which the Pope threateneth to confer on others in caſe of Diſobedience. A Meſſenger arrived here the 17th inſtant with Letters from the two Deputies of the Malecontents in Hungary, who were with Prince Ragotzi before Segedin the 13th. The Trenches had been opened 3 days, and a French Ingenier had given the Prince hopes of taking the Place in 6 days more; however, he thought fit to raiſe the Siege the 14th, and was going to Gungos to meet there with his Chief Generals in the Preſence of the Archbiſhop of Colocza, in order to Examine the Emperor's Declaration of the 20th of June, and the Conditions which Count Lamberg had Orders to propoſe for a Ceſſation of Arms. In the mean time, Directions are given to haſten the raiſing of the Recruits for General Heiſter's Army, who we hear, is advanced to Schavaw; and has poſſeſſed himſelf of that Paſs, having routed a Body of the Malecontents which lay there. A conſiderable Body of Militia is alſo ordered to join him. We hear the Malecontents in Tranſilvania have elected Ragotzi Prince of that Country.

From the Duke of Marlborough's Camp at Eppingen, Sept. 3. On the 18th of the laſt month the Marſhal de Tallard, with moſt of the other Priſoners of Note, marched from Hochſtet towards Hanaw and Francfort, under a Guard of 40 Engliſh Horſe. At the ſame time the Repartition was made of all the reſt of the Priſoners, who were ordered to ſeveral Places adjoyning, for the better Conveniency of keeping them till they could be removed further into the Country; and we found that in the whole (including near 3000 who are entered into our Service) their number exceeds 13000 Officers and Soldiers. The 19th, the Army marched from Stelnheim,
